Lassen County Office of Emergency Services Lassen EOC Press Release #1

Lassen County has submitted a total of 13 samples for testing. Six have been returned negative for COVID-19, seven are still outstanding. Lassen County to date has zero confirmed cases of COVID-19. We are asking the residents of Lassen County to honor Governor Newsom's order to stay at home. Governor Newsom's order can be found here: <https://covid19.ca.gov/img/N-33-20.pdf>

Guidance concerning essential personnel can be found here:
<https://www.cisa.gov/news/2020/03/19/cisa-releases-guidance-essential-critical-infrastructure-workers-during-covid-19>

In addition to precautions you may already be taking, we encourage that all citizens of Lassen County remain calm and do not act in a manner that might unnecessarily overwhelm the healthcare system. In case you suspect you are infected with COVID-19, a Call Center has been established to evaluate your concerns. You can reach the Call Center at: (530) 251-8100.

Lassen County will be issuing additional press releases to address the concerns of County residents.
